GreenTown Michiana 2.0

April 22, 2014

Downtown South Bend, Indiana

Healthy people. Healthy communities.

GreenTown Michiana 2013 was the most successful GreenTown event ever. We're building on that success with GreenTown Michiana 2.0.

A number of partnerships and initiatives developed as a result of GreenTown Michiana in October 2013. The next GreenTown Michiana event will be Tuesday, April 22, 2014. Join us as we combine a "working day of aspiration" with a day of "inspiration and perspiration," highlighting initiatives from around the area and providing opportunities to advance projects and sustainability around the region.

Be sure to attend the IUSB Center For A Sustainable Future annual Earth Day event the evening of Tuesday, April 22.
